Never-Filed Post-Rehearing Mandate

Court: United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit Case: Open Grid Archive v. United States Department of Energy Isolated docket: SYN-CA4-26-CV-4106-CF-NEVER-OCCURRED Filed: August 3, 2026

The Court issues mandate following the revised counterfactual opinion and judgment entered July 13, 2026. Although Rule 40 otherwise affords forty-five days when a United States agency is a party, the revised disposition expressly shortened the rehearing filing time to fourteen days. That period ended July 27, no petition or later order altered the calculation, and seven additional days have elapsed under Rule 41(b).

The mandate consists of certified copies of the revised judgment and opinion and places their full affirmance into effect within the isolated branch. The earlier May 29 disposition remains withdrawn and is not transmitted as operative authority. No remand instruction accompanies this issuance.

The mandate stay entered during panel rehearing dissolves upon issuance today. That procedural change does not expand access to a controlled document. The revised opinion's passage-specific restrictions continue for their stated finite period and remain subject to earlier supported reconsideration.

Certification, Access, and Closure

Teren Wye certifies the July 13 opinion and judgment and transmits the branch record to the fictional district clerk. The docket reflects grant of rehearing, withdrawal of the first disposition, supplemental briefing, revised affirmance, expiration of the new rehearing period, and mandate on August 3. It includes no mutually exclusive denial path.

The thirty-day post-mandate access period runs through September 2, 2026. Public counterparts remain available. Any controlled restriction continuing beyond that date requires a new order with the access right, supporting interest, alternatives, scope, and duration stated for the affected passage. Certification itself is not an access grant.

Service is made through the isolated exercise system on Tamsin Roe, Leo Marr, and Corin Pell. The counterfactual appellate proceeding terminates when this mandate issues. No event here occurred on the actual appeal or changes the actual district record.

Issued August 3, 2026 at the direction of Judges Vale, Quill, and Reed. All facts, people, records, and systems are fictional, and this mandate conveys no operational instruction or authentic security information.
