United States District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina

Rhea Calder v. Cinder Lake Health Network, Inc.

Civil Action No. SYN-EDNC-25-CV-0882

Docket Entry 46 — Filed April 1, 2026

Tessa Wren, fictional district clerk, certifies this public docket report for Civil Action No. SYN-EDNC-25-CV-0882, Rhea Calder v. Cinder Lake Health Network, Inc. The report covers entries through 8:30 a.m. on April 1, 2026.

Restricted exhibits are described by public notice only. No complete sealed item is reproduced, linked, or represented as electronically accessible. All parties, filings, and identifiers are fictional.

Entries 1–8 — Pleadings

DE1, December 3, 2025: Complaint by Rhea Calder. DE2: summons issued through the synthetic channel. DE3: appearance of Nina Ashe. DE4, December 12: First Amended Complaint. DE5: waiver of service by Cinder Lake. DE6: appearance of Mara Voss. DE7: consented extension notice. DE8, December 22: Answer.

The amended complaint asserts one retaliation count under 31 U.S.C. § 3730(h). The answer denies retaliation and disclaims reliance on advice of counsel.

Entries 9–17 — Case Management

DE9: initial scheduling notice. DE10: joint extension report. DE11: notice of Rule 26(f) conference. DE12, January 5, 2026: Rule 26(f), ESI, and privilege protocol. DE13: joint proposed protective order. DE14, January 9: Protective and Rule 502(d) Order. DE15: case-management schedule.

DE16, January 20: Audit Intake, Investigation Charter, and Nonprivileged Chronology. DE17, January 22: public August 21, 2025 compliance response letter. The docket notes that DE14 operates prospectively.

Entries 18–22 — Discovery Motion

DE18: Calder's first requests for production. DE19: Cinder Lake responses and objections. DE20: conference notice. DE21: notice of unresolved privilege dispute. DE22, February 16, 2026: Calder's Motion to Compel, memorandum, item-specific requests, and conference certification.

The motion seeks complete investigation materials under a subject-matter-waiver theory and proposes seven-day production. No court-ordered deadline existed on February 16.

Entries 23–30 — February 26 Filing and Lodgment

DE23–DE28 record supplemental conference notices and a briefing extension. DE29, February 26: Cinder Lake opposition and public Local Civil Rule 79.2 motion to seal. DE29-1: twelve-page public redacted memorandum counterpart, previously exchanged offline January 29.

DE29-2: eight-page public redacted log counterpart, previously exchanged offline February 5.

DE29-S1 and DE29-S2: complete synthetic counterparts provisionally lodged offline February 26. DE30: public confidentiality, access, provenance, and service certificate. The January 29 and February 5 exchanges were not filings.

Public Sealing Notice

The clerk's public notice identifies DE29-S1 as a complete twelve-page outside-counsel memorandum and DE29-S2 as a complete eight-page privilege log. Cinder Lake asserts attorney-client privilege and work product. Calder disputes those protections through the pending motion.

The complete exhibits were tendered under Standing Order 25-SO-1, In re: Procedures for Access and Management of Sealed Documents. They were not uploaded to CM/ECF and are not available through a public electronic docket. Equal-page public counterparts remain at DE29-1 and DE29-2.

Entries 31–46 — Hearing and Orders

DE31–DE37 record hearing scheduling, witness-list notices, and public exhibit confirmations. DE38, March 24: Discovery Hearing Transcript. DE39, March 25: order finding categorical subject-matter waiver and compelling production by April 1. DE40, March 26: reconsideration and interim-stay motion. DE41, March 27: opposition. DE42, March 30: reconsideration denied. DE43, March 30: emergency district stay motion. DE44, March 31: opposition. DE45, April 1 at 8:15 a.m.: district stay denied. DE46: this certified report, generated at 8:30 a.m.

Clerk Certification

The report accurately reflects the synthetic public docket through its generation time. The production deadline remains April 1 at 5:00 p.m. unless altered by a later lawful order. This report does not state whether production later occurred and contains no appellate-docket event.

Certified April 1, 2026 by Tessa Wren, Fictional District Clerk. Public access consists of the listed public filings and counterparts only; the offline lodged complete exhibits remain restricted pending further order.
