

SYNTHETIC APPELLATE NOTICE — FICTIONAL CASE — NOT AN ACTUAL COURT NOTICE

United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit

Piedmont Booksellers Guild v. City of Norvale

No. SYN-CA4-26-CV-4103 Oral-Argument Calendar Notice Entered May 22, 2026

The above-captioned appeal is calendared for oral argument on Wednesday, June 10, 2026. The session will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the designated courtroom of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit. Counsel shall report to the Clerk's Office at least thirty minutes before the session, comply with security procedures, and remain available if the order of cases changes. This notice does not identify the panel in advance and does not predict the disposition.

The Court has allotted twenty minutes per side. The City of Norvale, as appellant, may reserve up to three minutes for rebuttal by notifying the courtroom deputy before argument begins. Counsel should be prepared to address interlocutory jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1292(a)(1), the continuing controversy concerning recurring events, the preliminary-injunction factors and standard of review, the First Amendment tailoring issues, and the proper treatment of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(c) and 65(d).

The joint appendix and briefs are the argument record. Counsel shall use the assigned appendix pagination when referring to evidence and should distinguish facts found or assumed by the district court from disputed legal characterizations. No demonstrative, supplemental authority, or new factual material may be presented without compliance with the applicable rules and an order permitting its use. Any letter concerning intervening authority must be filed and served through the ordinary docket.

The Court is aware of the May 20 order denying the City's mootness motion. Counsel may answer questions about the remaining event calendar, but the argument will not reopen that motion with unauthenticated factual submissions. The January 23 injunction remains effective unless altered by a competent court. This scheduling notice does not stay, expand, or clarify its terms.

Entered May 22, 2026, by the Clerk. Electronic notice is directed to all counsel of record. Any request for an accommodation, remote participation based on extraordinary circumstances, or substitution of arguing counsel shall be made promptly and in writing.