

SYNTHETIC APPELLATE ORDER — FICTIONAL CASE — NOT AN ACTUAL ORDER

United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit

Piedmont Booksellers Guild v. City of Norvale

No. SYN-CA4-26-CV-4103 Order Releasing Mandate for Issuance Entered July 9, 2026

The Court entered judgment on June 18, 2026. The ordinary period for a timely petition for panel or en banc rehearing expired without a petition. No motion to stay issuance of the mandate is pending, no order has altered the ordinary time, and the docket reflects no other event postponing issuance. The later governing date under Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 41 has therefore arrived.

The Clerk is directed to issue the mandate on July 9, 2026. The mandate shall include a certified copy of the judgment, the opinion, and the direction that each side bear its own appellate costs. Its issuance returns the matter for the limited proceedings described in the opinion. It does not dissolve the January 23 preliminary injunction, which remains effective until the district court enters a superseding order satisfying Rule 65(c) and (d), nor does it decide the unresolved merits of the civil action.

Entered July 9, 2026, by the Clerk under the panel's judgment and the applicable mandate rule. Electronic notice shall issue to all counsel and to the district clerk.
