

SYNTHETIC APPELLATE MANDATE — FICTIONAL CASE — NOT AN ACTUAL MANDATE

United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit

Piedmont Booksellers Guild v. City of Norvale

No. SYN-CA4-26-CV-4103 Mandate Issued July 9, 2026

The judgment of this Court entered June 18, 2026, is now effective through issuance of this mandate. A certified copy of the panel opinion and judgment accompanies this instrument. The Court exercised jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1292(a)(1), denied the City's mootness request, affirmed the Guild's entitlement to preliminary protection, and remanded only for correction of the preliminary order under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(c) and 65(d).

The district court shall conduct proceedings consistent with the opinion. The January 23 preliminary injunction remains effective until a superseding compliant order is entered. This mandate does not dissolve interim protection, resolve the complaint finally, or restrict the district court's authority to address materially changed circumstances on a proper record. Each side shall bear its own appellate costs.

The corrective remand is limited to the Rule 65 matters stated in the judgment.

The Clerk of this Court certifies that the time for an ordinary rehearing petition expired without a filing, no mandate-stay motion is pending, and the mandate was released for issuance on July 9, 2026. The certified judgment, opinion, and cost direction are transmitted to the Clerk of the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina for filing in case No. SYN-DSC-26-CV-0107.

Issuance is effective on the date shown. Counsel remain responsible for complying with any district-court schedule on remand. The appellate docket will reflect issuance and the disposition of this interlocutory appeal; any later appeal from a final district judgment would arise on its own record and notice.

Issued July 9, 2026, by the Clerk of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit. Electronic notice is provided to counsel for the City of Norvale and the Piedmont Booksellers Guild.
