

SYNTHETIC COUNTERFACTUAL APPELLATE BRANCH — NEVER OCCURRED ON THE ACTUAL DOCKET — ALL FACTS AND IDENTIFIERS ARE FICTIONAL

United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit

Piedmont Booksellers Guild v. City of Norvale

No. SYN-CA4-26-CV-4103-CF-NEVER-OCCURRED

Adverse Ordinary Release Order

Entered June 12, 2026

The clerk has reviewed the docket following the opinion and judgment entered May 22, 2026. That judgment reversed the January 23 preliminary injunction and remanded the action for further proceedings consistent with the opinion. The ordinary fourteen-day period for a petition for panel rehearing or rehearing en banc expired June 5. No rehearing petition or motion to stay the mandate was filed, and no order shortened, extended, or otherwise altered the governing mandate period.

Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 41(b) requires issuance seven days after the rehearing period expires when no later denial of a timely rehearing petition or mandate-stay motion controls. Seven days after June 5 is June 12. The docket therefore satisfies the ordinary timing condition today. The procedural grant of expedition and the earlier submission on the briefs did not change the postjudgment calculation.

The clerk is authorized to release the mandate on June 12, 2026. It shall become effective when issued under Rule 41(c) and shall contain the certified May 22 judgment, the accompanying adverse opinion, and the direction concerning appellate costs. Release implements the interlocutory reversal and returns authority to the district court for proceedings consistent with that disposition. It does not enter final judgment on the Guild's constitutional claims or determine any request for permanent relief. Electronic notice shall be sent to both parties and to the district clerk.