

SYNTHETIC TRAINING MANDATE — NOT ISSUED BY ANY COURT

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FOURTH CIRCUIT No. SYN-26-1427

MANDATE

The certified exercise judgment and synthetic opinion are transmitted to the synthetic district court. The appeal was dismissed for lack of jurisdiction and remanded for further proceedings.

Judgment entered: June 8, 2026.

No petition for panel rehearing or rehearing en banc was filed by the June 22, 2026 ordinary deadline. No motion to stay mandate was filed. No order shortened or extended the period.

Mandate issued and effective in the exercise: June 29, 2026.

Contents by reference:

1. certified copy of the one-page synthetic judgment;
2. copy of the six-page synthetic opinion; and
3. direction that each side bear its own exercise costs.

CLERK, exercise designation only

Timing basis: FRAP 40(d)(1) supplies the fourteen-day rehearing period for this private civil case. FRAP 41(b) sets issuance seven days after that time expires when no timely petition or stay motion intervenes. The June 29 date is not asserted as a universal fixed interval; the rule's later-of branches are stated separately in `traces/expected-traces.json`.
