

United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit

Clerk Order Releasing Ordinary Mandate

Asterglen Freight Software, Inc., Appellant, v. Copper Kestrel Logistics, LLC and Meridian Silt Holdings, LLC, Appellees.

No. SYN-CA4-26-CV-4102 Appellate ECF No. 12 — Entered June 29, 2026

The Court entered its opinion and judgment on June 8, 2026. The fourteen-day period for a petition for panel rehearing or rehearing en banc expired on June 22, 2026. No party filed a rehearing petition, and the Court entered no order extending or shortening that period. No party filed a motion to stay the mandate, and no order otherwise holds issuance.

Under Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 41, the ordinary issuance date is seven days after expiration of the rehearing period. That date is June 29, 2026. The Clerk therefore RELEASES the mandate for issuance today. The mandate shall include a certified copy of the judgment, the panel opinion, and the judgment's direction that each side bear its own costs under Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 39(a)(1).

Release and issuance make the mandate effective according to Rule 41(c). The Clerk shall transmit it to the United States District Court for the Northern District of West Virginia for association with Civil Action No. SYN-NDWV-25-CV-0618. This administrative order does not alter the judgment, add a merits ruling, vacate the January 12 partial-summary-judgment order, or resolve any claim pending below.
